DETAILED ACTION

1. This communication is in response to the applicant's amendment filed September 27, 2004. Claims 1-16 are pending in this case.

Response to Arguments

2. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-16 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter that the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claims 4-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. As limitations to either independent claim 1 or 3, it is unclear what each claim seeks to limit or not limit. Correction for clarity is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over DeMartin et al (US 6,226,672) in view of Colyer et al (US 6,151,621).
7. Regarding claims 1-3 3 -

Art Unit: 3621

DeMartin discloses a method of generating revenue online, comprising the steps of providing secure and privacy protected Internet accessible web site for an online community dedicated to a professional association wherein the members comprise potential customers with whom the entities may develop personal relationships; (e.g. col 1 ln 65 – col 2 ln 25).

8. DeMartin does not disclose, but Colyer does, selling to one or more entities the right for a predetermined amount of time to provide to the members expertise related to the professional association via the online community (e.g. col 4 ln 15-65).

9. It would be obvious to a practitioner of ordinary skill in the art to combine the teachings of DeMartin and Colyer in order to make a more user-friendly method of generating income online.

10. Examiner's note: Examiner has cited particular columns and line numbers in the references as applied, to the claims above for the convenience of the applicant. Although the specified citations are representative of the teachings in the art and are applied to the specific limitations within the individual claim, other passages and figures may be applied as well. It is respectfully requested from the applicant, in preparing the responses, to fully consider the references in entirety as potentially teaching all or part.
